

CLEAR AS A BELL

Clear as a Bell makes a great informal assessment of where students are in their learning. Whether students provide the things that they feel most students know best or things that other students may find difficult, they provide the teacher with information that will direct the next steps in instruction.

This activity can be used with forms that are given to the students or index cards when there may be a few minutes remaining at the end of class and collected as students exit.

Shannon Robinson
Dueitt Middle School
Spring, TX