

CONTENT POSTERS—CHEMISTRY

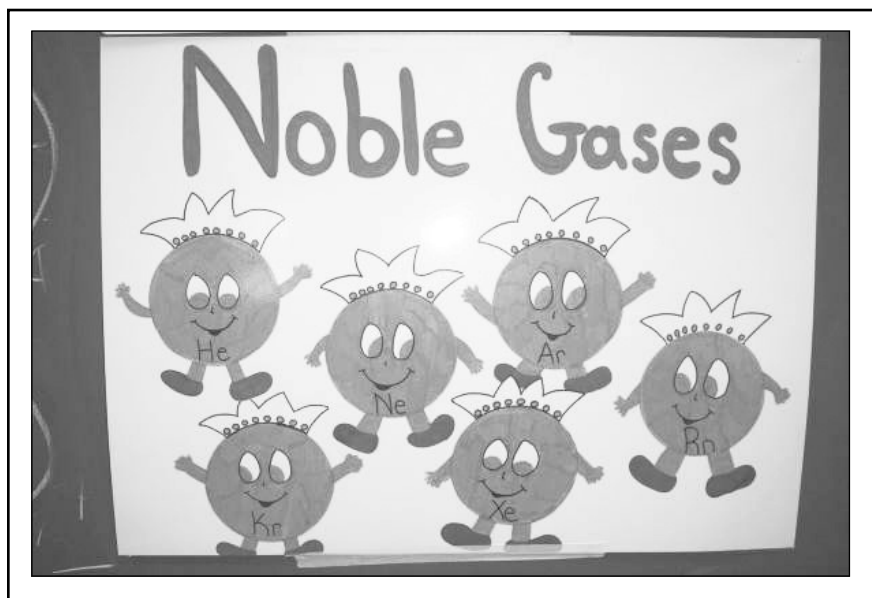

Posters displayed on the wall should be large enough for all to see from anywhere in the room.

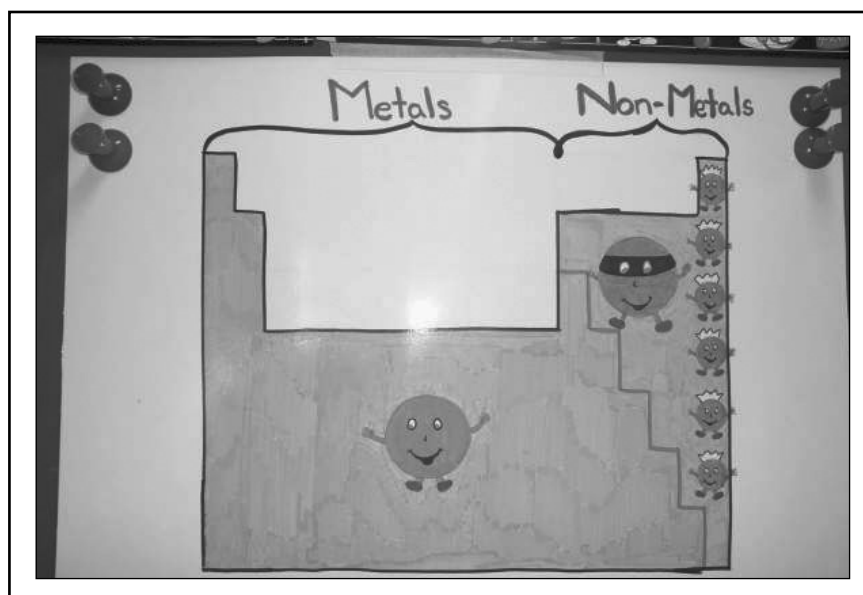

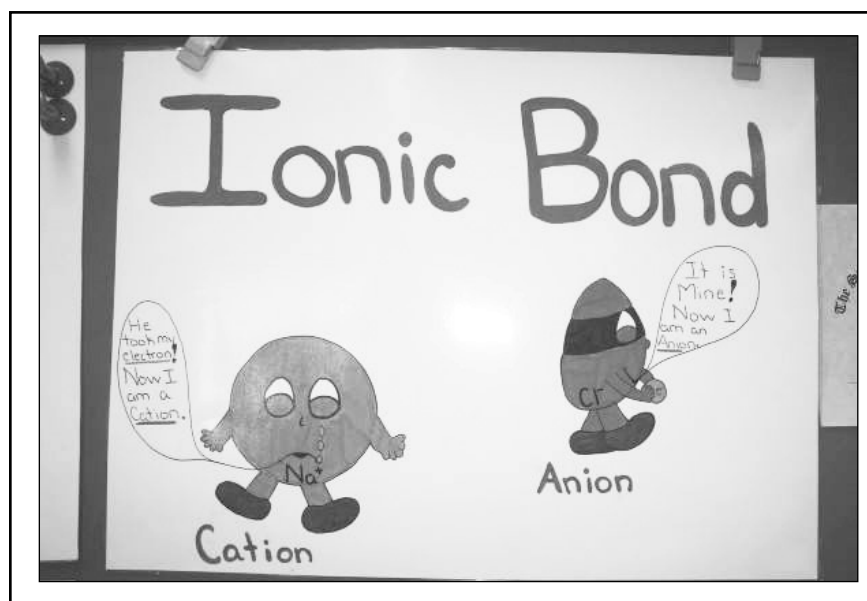

Simplicity is the best policy. Encourage students to use fewer words on posters. Processing occurs as they decide how to portray the idea without words.

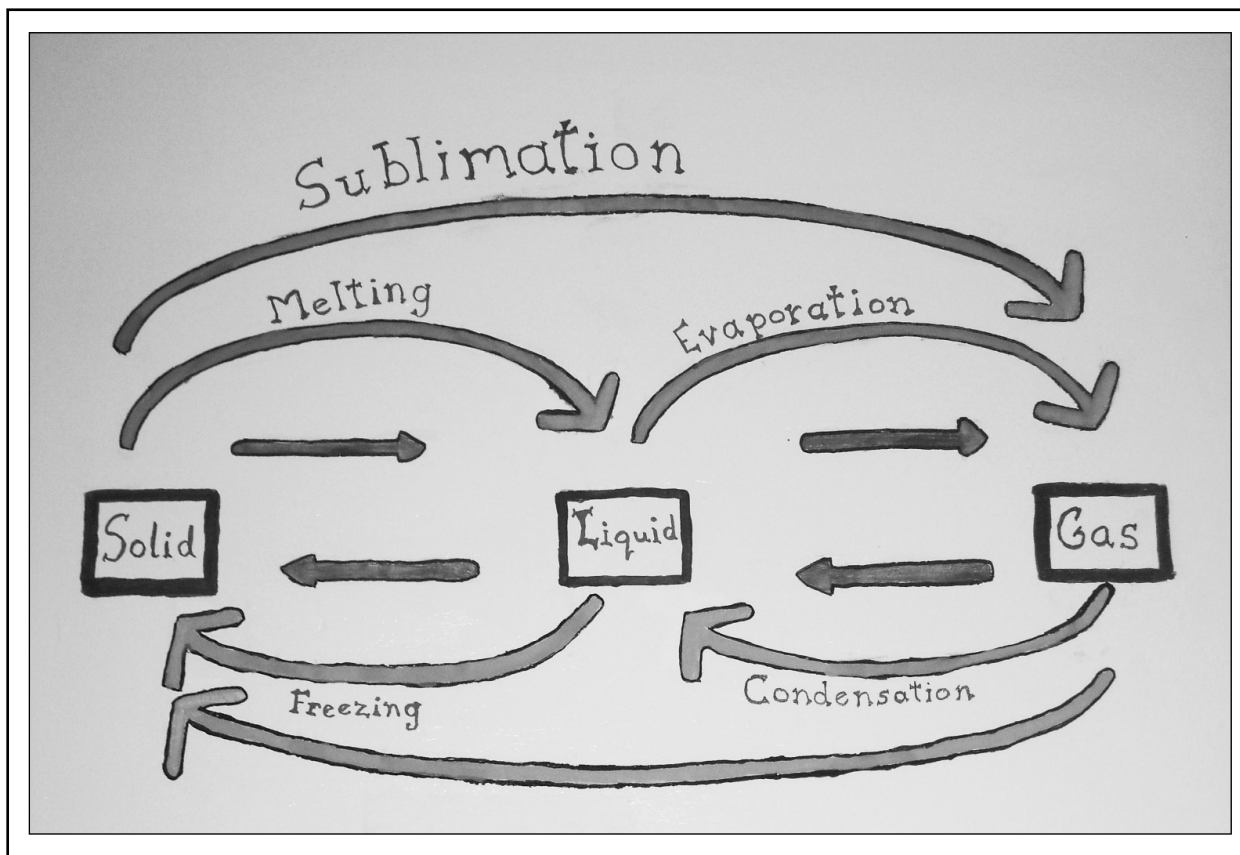

Fewer words encourage an observer to study and remember the graphic and consequently more information.

Susan Wood
Clearwater High School
Clearwater, FL

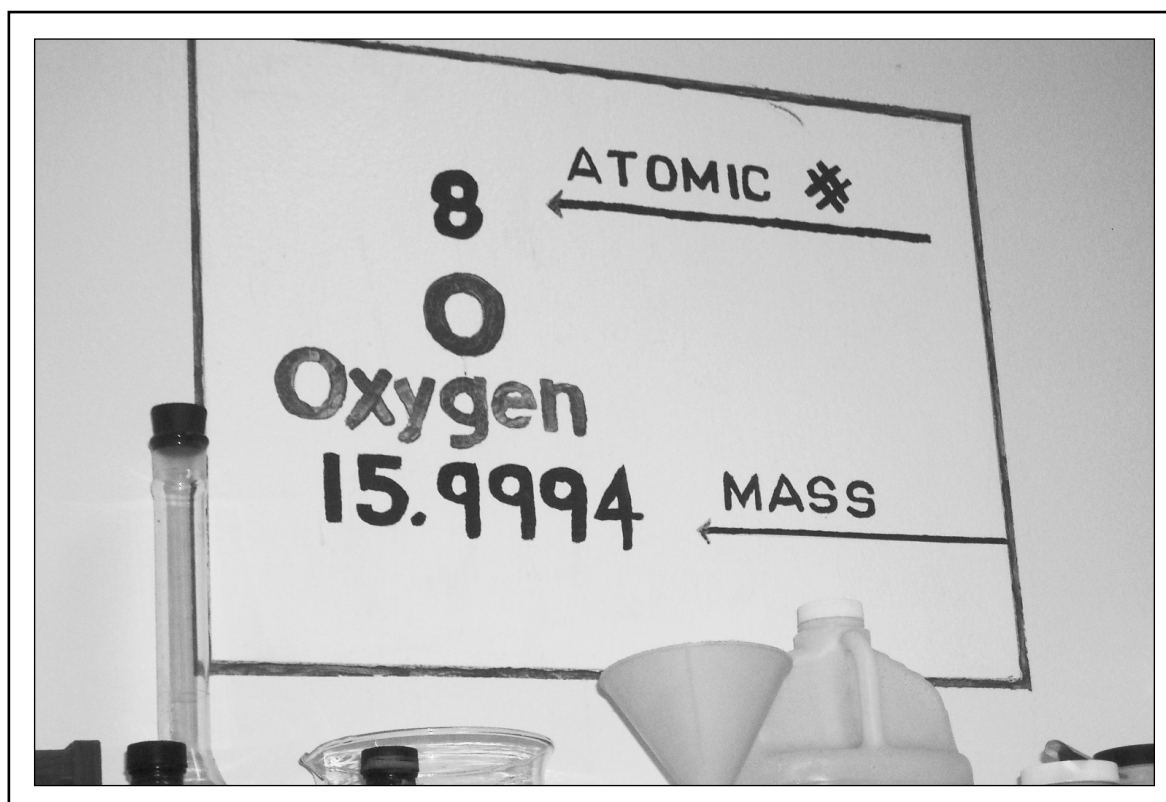

Giovanna Santiago
Clearwater High School
Clearwater, FL

These posters begin the sprinkling on the first day as they are painted on the wall of the classroom.

Craig Holm
Clearwater High School
Clearwater, FL